RIDDINGTON SCHOOL

Posted by James Barnes, 18 February, 09:30

I expect you have heard that Sir Angus Harper has died. The Harpers have lived in the big house next to our school for centuries – long before the school was built. For over fifty years, they have let us use part of their land – the field called Long Meadow – as a playing field. Now we have been told that Sir Angus's widow wants to sell the land to a property developer who intends to build houses on it. So we're going to need to find a new place to play sports. If you have any ideas, please let me know. We could pay a small rent, but not very much. Thank you.
